and Reese's story, and honestly it just makes me so sad that we are nearing the end of the Rosemary Beach Series. The story begins with Reese in Chicago visiting her father and Mase back in Texas working on his family's ranch. I was so intrigued to see where this story would go since I didn't expect a sequel for Mase and Reese.

I've read a lot of books on rest, technology, limitations, and incorporating practices for the healing of the soul. This may be the best I've read. John does such a great job of weaving together timeless Christian wisdom, story telling, and application. I loved his transparency in the book, as well. If you're not a fan of John Eldredge, that's ...
