Step 1, Make a light outline of a face. Heads are never circular, they are oval shaped, like an egg. So sketch an oval outline that tapers down at the bottom. Step 2, Add dividing lines. The easiest way to start is to use dividing lines to map out the proportions of the face. Firstly, draw a line down the center of the oval. Then cut the oval in half again, this time horizontally. Step 3, Add the nose. Divide the lower half again with another horizontal line. The point at which this crosses ...
