El Deafo should be the first and is definitely the second." — New York Times Book Review STARRED REVIEW "This memoir is thus exceptionally informative and entertaining in relation to some aspects of deaf communication, but, most centrally and powerfully, it is exceptional for its perceptive, indomitable protagonist and complex story of ...

El Deafo (Hardcover) | ABRAMS

I also absolutely loved the interludes with El Deafo, the superhero Cece creates. I thought they were laugh-out-loud-funny, beautifully illustrated and great story pauses. Because this is a semi-autobiographical graphic novel, the structure of this story was initially a little jarring-there is no build up and climatic ending.
