The Holy Book of the Great Invisible Spirit

"For his invisible attributes, namely, his eternal power and divine nature, have been clearly perceived, ever since the creation of the world, in the things that have been made. So, they are without excuse" (Romans 1:20). All things were created through Jesus "In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.

The Heavens Declare the Glory of God - Verse Meaning Explained

Glory has to do with revealing the unseen eternal. The Greek word that we render "glory" means "made apparent" So when God "glorified" Christ in resurrection, He "made apparent" that EVERY SINGLE sin had been put away. The wages of sin is death, so if one single little sin remained, Christ could not have been resurrected.

God says "No, Moses, if you want to see glory, you're going to have be hidden away, you've got to turn, and then you'll get some of the backside of my glory and I'll speak to you my name."

The Invisible God Made Visible - Christ Covenant Church

Andrei Orlov examines early Christological developments in the light of rabbinic references to the "two powers" in heaven, tracing the impact of this concept through both canonical and non-canonical material. Orlov begins by looking at imagery of the "two powers" in early Jewish literature, in particular the book of Daniel, and in pseudepigraphical writings. He then traces the concept ...
