So, if you choose to rely just a little bit on law-keeping as a way of getting justified, as a way of getting into a position where God is 100 percent for you, Christ is of no advantage to you. If you go the route of justification by faith plus a little bit of law-keeping, you go the route of justification by total law-keeping.

Here they are in very simple form: There is BIG GOD and Little Me or there is Little God and BIG ME. When you come into the knowledge of God, you will have a Big God and a little you. But for most of us, it's the other way around. Our view of ourselves is so big that God shrinks down to a manageable size.

Big God, Little Me | Keep Believing Ministries
Yet God stopped storms, prompted earthquakes, halted the sun, and created the universe with the mere utterance of His voice. That makes Him pretty big, and reminds me that I'm pretty little. Faith (trust in God) and faithfulness (consistent devotion to His service) are absolutely impossible in the absence of a "big God."

Big God, Little Me. - Focus Online
The almighty Creator of the universe, who is higher in stature and priority than any "little g" god we might entertain at the moment, sent His son, Jesus, to humbly serve us and then die on the cross for us. God did all of this for you and me so we could stand—could RISE UP!—in His glorious presence.

Romans 3:23 says, "For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God." This included me and all my little sins. They are not little sins to God! I had come short of meeting God's expectations. Romans 6:23 says, "For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord."
