'Form' and 'function' are two extremely important concepts that you need to know about to fully understand how grammar works. Surprisingly, there is no overt reference to these terms in the UK National Curriculum. 'Form' refers to the category labels we use for the building blocks of grammar, i.e. word classes, phrases, and clauses. Consider the following...

Grammatical functions in the clause. The description of word classes, phrases, and clauses in terms of their structure is part of the study of form . We now turn to the study of grammar from the perspective of function: this notion refers to what words, phrases and clauses do as units of language. Grammatical functions are the roles that different constituents (strings of words acting as units) play in clauses.
