As the third book in the "Sarah's Scribbles Book Series", HERDING CATS is as entertaining as the previous two have been, though they are definitely all stand alone books. Sarah Anderson manages to capture the world of the introverted and anxiety ridden perfectly in her comics, which is part of what I love about her work.

Herding Cats: A Sarah's Scribbles Collection by Sarah ...

Herding Cats from Sarah Andersen is a 5 star for me. And yes, I considered rating this a 4 just to make anyone reading this crazy. While I am well past the age where I should still be figuring my way through this world (theoretically anyway) I am still able to connect with both the warm fuzzies (usually involving pets) and the frustration at ...

Terrifying deadlines, piles of junk-food wrappers under a glowing computer screen, and an ever-growing horde of pets...umm, never mind- it's pretty much the same.

Sarah's Scribbles: "Herding Cats" - Scribbles Shop

So we all know what the term herding cats refers to, that sense that it is futile to control that which is ultimately uncontrollable. This book is a series of cartoons and one or two-page comics dealing with forgetting your headphones when you want to listen to music, stubbing your pinky toe when you are just walking along, in a good mood, things like that, from the shy Sarah.
