Leaving Fletchville

Leaving fletchville was a really interesting book because you never new were the book was going it was always a surprise. Leaving fletchville was probably one of the best books i read beside the strange gift of Gwendoline Golden. Fletchville was a very detailed book and i would definley recommend this book to anyone at anyage.

Leaving Fletchville by Rene Schmidt - Goodreads

Leaving Fletchville is filled with suspense, friendship, and one deep dark secret that no one in Kingsville is supposed to know. But Brandon isn't the only one learning new things, so is Leon. Leon learns how to be a good and trustworthy friend. Will Brandon earn Leon's and his family's trust?

While Leaving Fletchville's themes are tough, its story is hopeful, and its characters are inspirational. Brandon's first-person narration is fresh and discerning, and his "bad boy" reputation conceals a gentle, compassionate and loyal nature.
