Musashi: The Way of the Samurai by Eiji Yoshikawa

Musashi was a legendary samurai who lived in the 16th and 17th centuries in feudal Japan. The 1939 novel Musashi was wildly popular and is largely responsible for the swordsman's status as an enduring cultural icon, but its account of his life is almost entirely fictitious. To this day, it's difficult to sort the truth from the fairy tales, due to the pervasive aura of myth and rumor surrounding Musashi and the esoteric and highly context-sensitive nature of his original writings.
