Location: Austin, Texas. I recently worked an online bebop guitar course that is great for country, western swing and uptown blues players who want to get some jazz flavor in their playing, taught by Richie Zellon (a delightful, very likable instructor). The instruction is based on blues progressions, over dominant chords, using mixolydian scales, (and later ii7 V7 I cadences) for the first 2/3 of the course so all the instruction is directly applicable for non-jazzers.
