For almost 5 years, I've been trying to complete an exercise I first read about in Laura Vanderkam's book 168 Hours: You Have More Time Than You Think: create a personal list of 100 dreams.. The idea is this: to help you think through how you want to spend your time (in the big-picture sense) brainstorm an unedited list of anything you want to do (or want to do more of) in your life.

To me, accuracy when making a Top 10/Top 100 all time list is extremely important. My lists are not based on my own personal favorites; they are based on the true greatness and/or success of the person, place or thing being ranked. In other words, a film's commercial success (Oscars & BAFTA Awards), and greatness in direction, screenwriting and ...
